

Compeer Rochester Announces Management, Board Appointments

Dana Frame named president/executive director; Kathleen Pringle elected board chair

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Nov. 22, 2006 — Compeer Rochester Inc. announced today two new leadership appointments, along with new members of its board of directors.

Dana Frame has been named president/executive director, overseeing the organization's strategic direction, managing staff and directing program planning and development, goals and objectives, policies and procedures, quality assurance and budget development. Frame holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Denison University in Ohio. A resident of East Rochester, she has served Compeer since 1998.

Kathleen Pringle has been elected chair of the board of directors. Pringle is the president of Predictive Insights Inc., a career-navigation coaching firm. Pringle, who has served on the Compeer board since 2002, previously served as co-vice chair of the board of directors. She resides in Fairport.

New board members include:

- Melissa Geska (of Webster), founder and president of Custom Networking LLC.
- Barbara Koontz (of Webster), vice president, human resources and learning, Xerox North America.
- Craig A. Mapstone (of Pittsford), director of asset management, Mapstone Financial Group.

The board also elected the following officers: vice chair Timothy J. Cook, president of Cook Communications; treasurer J. Theodore Smith, vice president of commercial banking, M&T Bank; and secretary Patrick J. Solomon, Esq., Dolin, Thomas & Solomon LLP.

#