

Compeer Rochester Adds Three Board Members

ROCHESTER, N.Y., July 30, 2008 — Compeer Rochester Inc. announced today that Thomas R. Anderson, Thomas A. Dunning and Paul D. Keenan have been elected to serve on its board of directors.

A partner in the Rochester office of Harter Secrest & Emery LLP, Anderson represents private and public companies in connection with general corporate matters, acquisitions and divestitures, technology transfers and private equity transactions. The Penfield, N.Y. resident also is a member of the Learning for Life Committee of the Otetiana Council.

Dunning, vice president and commercial loan officer at KeyBank NA, is responsible for originating, structuring and managing a commercial loans and real estate mortgage portfolio of more than $140 million in commitments. The Pittsford, N.Y. resident previously served on the boards of directors of St. John's Home and of the Rochester Hearing and Speech Center.

Keenan serves as regional sales manager and vice president at First Niagara Financial Group. He led the development of Rochester's retail DeNovo expansion efforts, building eight new branches in three years. Before joining First Niagara, he served in management roles at HSBC, KeyBank and Fleet Bank. Keenan resides in Spencerport, N.Y.

About Compeer Rochester

Compeer Rochester Inc.'s (www.rochester.compeer.org) mission is to improve the quality of life and assist in the rehabilitation and support of adults and young people in Monroe County who are striving for mental wellness and in need of an emotionally supportive relationship. Through community education and the facilitation and management of goal-directed, mentoring relationships, Compeer Rochester's programs help people live happier, more productive lives and increase the social capital of our community.

#